- How did the group interact together?

I think we did well communicating on who did what task. Everyone was aware of their responsibilities. However, one of my teammates didn't contribute to the project, which impacted our team dynamic.

- What have you learned and how have you learned it?

I learned that it's best to assign tasks quickly to get the task done on time.

- What were your contributions to the group?

My contributions were creating a group chat for better communication and assigning tasks to make sure we met our project deadline.

- What was done well? What could be improved?

It's great that we didn't procrastinate and finished the project a day early. I only think we had difficulty when it came to sharing the graphics on canva, which means that we may have needed better coordination on technical tasks.
